Organize Meetings and Events in Montenegro and enjoy a small country with good communications, modern infrastructure and diverse, stunning landscapes which make it just a perfect destination for conferences, business meetings and Incentives of any size. Mild Mediterranean climate and favorable geographical location allow Montenegro to be all year round MICE destination.

Looking forward to welcoming you!
This is a corner of the Mediterranean where the magical encounter of many opposites continuously takes place in the most wonderful way. The Adriatic Sea and the majestic Kotor Bay rocks are touching, exploring, and competing with each other. A warm breeze is drawn in from the open sea canyons deep into the mainland and higher, up to fairy tale valleys and peaks covered with eternal snow. In light of its rich nature, and the blessings of its modern touristic offerings, Montenegro is a gift from God for encounters that enrich and change lives.
Montenegro is the right choice for organizing business meetings, large conferences and trips, as proven by numerous incentive commercial companies, national and international organizations and associations that have had their meetings and events held on the Montenegrin coast, as part of their tradition for years and even decades. The advantages are many: in addition to luxury hotels with great accommodation capacities and theatres equipped with the latest technology, Montenegro offers the Mediterranean climate, outstanding natural, cultural and historical attractions, unforgettable excursions, excellent relaxation and leisure activities, as well as a rich and authentic cuisine.
Peaceful and romantic old cities, the invigorating smell of the sea and the warmth of fishing villages, lovely sandy beaches and an incredible variety of hilly and mountainous hinterland landscapes which call for research adventures, together with the dedication and hospitality of the hosts, will make all participants remember the event with joy, eagerly anticipating the next one in Montenegro.

Welcome to Montenegro

Pre-dinner cocktail in Regent Porto Montenegro’s Italian Garden

Overlooking the serene and shimmering waters of the marina and bay, the Italian Garden is a private, lushly landscaped island located along the waterfront – a spectacular dining venue for special occasions and VIP events, or for enjoying an intimate dinner and drinks, served by the hotel’s restaurant, bar and patisserie.

Dinner in Regent Porto Montenegro’s Murano Restaurant

This all-day dining venue takes delight in creating simple yet elegant gastronomic experiences, with a focus on using fresh locally sourced ingredients and keeping flavors natural and organic. First port of call is a luxurious breakfast of a cold buffet spread served alongside hot a la carte preparations to awaken the day. For lunch and dinner, choose from a tantalizing mix of Mediterranean and Adriatic-inspired dishes, and a selection of prime meats and seafood charcoal-grilled over an open flame. Come evening, savor a six-course degustation menu specially created for your delectation by our experienced team of chefs.

Time to party in Regent Porto Montenegro’s Library Bar

Whether warmed in the winter beside an open fireplace or enjoying the glow of stunning summer sunsets out on the terrace, the Library Bar is the place to unwind at all times and in all seasons. Within its sophisticated ambience, reminiscent of a traditional gentlemen’s club, relax with your drink of choice from a premium selection of champagnes, cognacs and the finest Scotch whiskies, all combined with a fine selection of cigars, or an extensive menu of creative and classic cocktails, regional wines and non-alcoholic beverages.
Welcome to Montenegro

- Arrival at Podgorica airport

Podgorica is the capital and the largest city of Montenegro and only 50 km far from the Adriatic Sea. It is the administrative centre of Montenegro and its economic, cultural and educational focus.

The day- and night-life offers unique opportunities to enjoy theatre plays and performances, music events and entertainment programmes. Podgorica's mixture of architectural styles reflects the turbulent history of the city and country.

Visit the Plantaze Vineyards

The company “13 Jul Plantaze” was established in 1963. and it deals with production of wine and table grapes, peach, wine and grape brandy, fish farming, catering and retail. The company is characterized by its strategy which is based on the production of indigenous grape varieties - Vranac and Krstac.

The company owns three wine cellars with capacity of over 30 million liters where is kept and where flourishes vine of bourbon color, twilight and velvet. Although it is situated in a small Montenegro, Plantaze owns the largest vineyard in Europe, covering the surface of over 2000 ha, planted with over 10 million of grapevines.

As a company who is always striving for innovations, they have expanded their assortment with wines: Chardonnay Barrique and Vranac Barrique.

Secret of Montenegro Treasure Plantaze Vineyards

Wine Degustation at Plantaze Wine Cellar Sipanik

Wine - cellar Sipanik was opened towards the end of 2007, when an old military building was turned into an impressive wine treasury. The cellar is situated at the average depth of over 30 meters, in the form of a tunnel, 306 meters long, and 13.5 meters wide and 7 meters high, the temperature is constantly between 17 and 19 degrees. Two million liters of wine have been aging in the wooden barrels and bottles. In this wine - cellar one might see the most famous brand BARIK - Vicar, Hope, Mero, Rada, Taranos. As a part of Sipanik is a wine cellar with 28,000 bottles of wine, 3 to 10 years old, and there is also the oldest wine plantation - Lesendro Harvest in 1979, which after nearly 30 years, is still brick and smooth. It shows that lattiness of Vranac is not discovered yet. After sightseeing the vineyards and having a short stop at the viewpoint, you arrive in the cellar “Šipčanik”. In these rooms covering cc.7000 square meters, the wine has been held and tended in almost perfect climatic and technological conditions.

- Departure to the hotel Regent Porto Montenegro

Dinner at Verige 65

Restaurant & Bar Verige 65 is located in the narrowest part of the Boka Bay, from where you can get a breathtaking view over the famous Perast inlets Our Lady of the Rocks (Gospa od Skrpjela) and Saint George, but also fairytale city of Perast.

For all of your special moments, but also for the moments when at the sunset, alone or accompanied, you just want to enjoy the open sky and amazing environment, restaurant Verige 65 has prepared domestic and international cuisine offer, followed by a rich selection of top-quality drinks.
Day 2

Jeep Safari in Historical Heart of Montenegro (Old Royal Capital - Cetinje)

- Departure from the hotel by jeeps to the Old Royal Capital.

In the old capital Cetinje, today almost deserted heart of Montenegro, city that fell asleep after II World War, lies numerous possibilities for history loving visitors. Strolling down the city center, all the sights are easily accessible: well preserved Palace of King Nikola, old embassies of all countries, monasteries and churches where two of the most famous Christian relics are kept (the right hand of St. John the Baptist, a piece of the True Cross, the chest of St. Petar Cetinjski and a rich collection of icons, rich paintings and ethnographic collection, war trophies).

- Walking tour through Cetinje, with guided Visit of King Nikola’s residence.

Visit of Njegos’ Mausoleum

The largest and most important monument of the National Park of Lovcen is Njegos’ Mausoleum. Petar II Petrović-Njegos was a Prince-Bishop of Montenegro, a Serbian Orthodox Metropolitan of Cetinje, a philosopher and poet, whose work is considered responsible for the modernization of Montenegro.

This unique monument is located at the highest point of the top named Jezerski vrh, which Njegos was chosen for his burial place.

The mausoleum of the greatest Montenegrin poet and ruler Petar Petrović Njegos (1813 - 1851), represents a highlight of the visit to the National Park Lovcen.

Mausoleum can be reached by the 20 kilometer road from Cetinje, followed by additional 461 steps that should be climbed to reach the mausoleum.

Mausoleum is the most important work of the great Croatian sculptor Ivan Mestrovic.

National Park Lovcen

Apart from its unusual and extraordinary beauty, historical and cultural reasons prevailed for it to become a National Park.

The highest is the peak Stirovnik - 1,749 m above the sea level, which is also the highest peak of the mountain Lovcen.

Authentic national architecture can be seen in this region: katuns – summer settlements of farmers and old stone houses with roofs made of sawn straw or laminar limestone, village gurna – places where folk meetings were held, were people celebrated and enjoyed themselves.

Lipa Cave - Optional

Lipa Cave is the first cave adventure in Montenegro offering a charming diversity of karstic features to provide the visitors with a unique experience of the underground world. The cave’s authenticity lies in its genuine wilderness that leaves a lasting impression and makes the visit a memorable adventure.

Lipa Cave is one of the largest cave monuments in Montenegro. It boasts a beautiful and wild cave system with 2.5 km of passages and halls and offers a unique experience of the underground world. Its beauty was recognized by King Nikola I and Petar II Petrović-Njegos, who played a very important role in the Montenegrin history.

Just 33 km from Budva, 35 km from Podgorica and 5 km from Cetinje.

The temperature in the cave is between 8-12 degrees. Be ready for a pure adventure.
The restaurant is named after the first Montenegrin lord and the founder of Cetinje. It is located in a magnificent setting of the National Park Lovcen, framed by hundred years old beech and pine forests. Although menu is dominated by traditional Montenegrin cuisine, it does not neglect worldwide enjoyed specialties.

The best way to introduce the very heart of Montenegrin culture is to enjoy in folklorists dance. It would be remembered as a spectacular performance with unique choreographies and enchanting traditional costumes. Folk music and creativity of Montenegro during the centuries was formed under various influences, maintaining all the elements of specific musical expression. The folklore and tradition of Montenegro and the Montenegrin people played a crucial role, but also the style orientation and modern understandings of the music expression were accepted under the influence of the achievements of the European and music of South Slavs, especially.

In the late 19th century, precisely in 1884, after five years of work, the Montenegrin builders built the road connecting Kotor and Njeguši, famous Montenegrin village and the birthplace of the famous dynasty Petrovic. Today, it is widely known as the famous serpentine road. By this road, which takes you unawares from warm, coastal climate and sea-scented air to the cold and harsh winter of continental Montenegro, number of passengers came to Cetinje and further north, towards their destinations.

This 25 km long road, is the real pride to the Montenegrin people and admirable construction to the rest of the world.
Medieval castle of the town Budva, dedicated to St. Mary, better known as Citadela, is the most monumental architectural object within the town walls of Budva.

The restaurant located on the first floor presents with its ambience and private dining areas an ideal place for private gatherings including high quality cuisine and special service. Attached to the restaurant there is a spacious terrace on the eastern tower with a stunning view of Sveti Nikola Island and the open sea.

Night Life in Budva: Top Hill & Trocadero
Budva is well known regionally as the capital of nightlife of the eastern Adriatic. The first discotéques in Budva started to emerge during the 1980s, as hotel attached dance clubs.

This trend continued into the 2000s, with Old Town and its promenade hosting a large number of bars, pubs and restaurants, and two big clubs, Top Hill and Trocadero, dominating the clubbing scene.
Day 3

Discover The Southernmost Fjord in Europe — Boka Bay

The Boka Bay - also known as the Gulf of Kotor is one of the most distinctive landscapes anywhere on the Mediterranean. The high mountains that bend around the coastline protect the bay from the open sea and from the cold climate of the north in winter.

The bay has been inhabited since antiquity. Its well-preserved medieval towns of Kotor, Risan, Tivat, Perast, Prčanj and Herceg Novi, along with their natural surroundings, are major tourist attractions. Natural and Culturo-Historical Region of Kotor has been a World Heritage Site since 1979.

No matter whether you enter the Boka Bay by land or by sea - your experiences will be the same - it will fascinate you!

Discovering UNESCO Protected Old Town of Kotor

• Visit of UNESCO protected Old Town

In a most secluded part of Boka Bay, the old Mediterranean town of Kotor lies, surrounded by an impressive city wall, very well preserved and protected. The Old City of Kotor was built between the 12th and 14th century. Medieval architecture and numerous monuments of cultural heritage have made Kotor an UNESCO listed “World Natural and Historical Heritage Site”.

A large number of the monuments (including four Romanesque churches and the town walls) were seriously damaged by the 1979 earthquake but the town has been restored. Today Kotor is a city of traders and famous sailors, in which carnivals and fiestas are organized each year to give additional charm to this beautiful city.

Skurda Canyon Tour

Tour the hidden Canyon of Skurda, which begins behind the Old Town of Kotor!

Start the morning with an upward hike for a view of the majestic, mountainous landscape that Montenegro has to offer. Follow it up with a venture into the canyon, a thrilling climb, in which we will cascade down the canyon walls, through waterfalls and tunnels, and eventually end back at the start, the historical town of Kotor.

With the help of our experienced guides, this trip is accessible to all people in any fitness level. The canyon is mostly dry, however, it is advised that you bring your bathing suit, sun screen, liters of water, snacks to eat throughout the day, and of course, good company.

Lunch at Galion Restaurant

For gourmets and the ones who enjoy the food and a glass of good tasting wine, for those who consider every meal a special occasion by itself, Restaurant Galion is an excellent choice. The restaurant is an example of a supreme service. Sophisticated fish menu with an amazing wine list and the terrace above the Kotor’s sea are the most significant features of this restaurant. Carefully chosen specialties from international cuisine with a pinch of local aromas are the ideal scenario for a lovely meal.

The view of the Old City’s walls and the blue of the sea will satisfy all esthetical appetites.

Sightseeing of Mamula Island

The fortress known as Mamula is built on the small, rocky isle of Lastavica, of a circular shape and with a diameter of about 200m, which is located at the entrance of the Boka Bay, 5.5 nautical miles away from the town of Herceg Novi.

This island is also known as Lastavica (The Swallow). It generally accepted name Mamula after the Austrian general Lazar Mamula, who made fortification on the island in the mid 19th century.

The fortress Mamula nowadays represents one of the biggest and best preserved Austrian fortifications on the Adriatic, characterised by monumentality, prominent building precision and perfect functionality of form.

The fortress is protected as a second category cultural monument.

Lunch in Forte Rose Tavern

Forte Rose Tavern – Taste authentic flavors of traditional cuisine.

Rose is a small fishing village located on the North-Western shore of the peninsula Lustica, a typical Mediterranean village with detached houses lined along the pier – seafront. This used to be the old Greek settlement Punto Roza which was destroyed by Saracens in 867. Since then, Rose has not succeeded in regaining its former glory.

Otherwise, the entire Rose is rich in archeological excavations, but the ones that are especially interesting are the hydro-archeological ones where some cannon balls were found, as well as anchors, ceramics and an old Spanish boat from the beginning of the 16th century, which suffered shipwreck while transferring the ceramics for the Bosnian dynasty.

Forte Rose Tavern is located inside the fortress and surrounded with stone walls and natural vegetation.
Ribarsko selo (Fishing Village) offers to its guests a unique local experience. Every day between 11 and 12am local fishermen visit the village and bring in the newly caught fish and seafood. All the culinary specialties that are prepared in the restaurant are made from the fresh ingredients and the vegetables that chefs use are organically grown in the nearby garden.
