Dress Code For Dinner Service

We take pride in creating an enjoyable upscale dining experience for all guests and, as such, we ask that you wear proper attire consistent with an upscale restaurant that may include young children.

We reserve the right to deny entry or remove any person wearing inappropriate attire not consistent with our dress code or that detracts from the dining experience of other guests as determined by restaurant management.

- Shoes, sneakers, sandals, or flip flops are required. No slippers, socks, or bare feet.
- No excessively revealing clothing short shorts, short cutoffs, tops that expose inappropriate parts of the body or any exposed undergarments.
- Clothing with profanity, offensive language, or graphics that are deemed offensive or inappropriate by management.
- No swimsuits or bathing cover-ups.
- No Low hanging pants or shorts. Pants and shorts must be worn at the waist.
- Collared shirts, polos shirts or T-shirts are required. No tank tops or sleeveless muscle shirts.

Guests who do not meet the Salt & Marrow Restaurant dress code are welcome to order from the restaurant menu and dine in the hotel lobby Bar.

All determinations and exceptions to the above dress code are that the sole discretion of the restaurant management.
