INTERCONTINENTAL GENÈVE HOTEL WINS FOR THE SECOND YEAR IN A ROW 3 TROPHIES AT THE WORLD TRAVEL AWARDS.

InterContinental Genève, member of the global hospitality leader IHG Group, is proud to announce to have been officially rewarded at the World Travel Awards 2019, for the second year in a row:

- Switzerland's Leading Business Hotel
- Switzerland's Leading Conference Hotel
- Switzerland's Leading Hotel Suite

The World Travel Awards identify and reward global product excellence within the travel, tourism and hospitality industry each year and are considered the most prestigious and comprehensive travel industry awards program in the world.

Award recipients are selected by online vote by both guests and travel professionals.

"We are honored for these three awards demonstrating the level to which our guests uphold our establishment. We attribute these rewards to our unwavering commitment to offer the best possible experiences through quality products and an irreproachable service. We will continue to do our utmost to sustain our position also for the future." said François Chopinet, Hotel General Manager.

"This is a prestigious award and I'm really appreciative of everyone who voted for us, as well as for the incredibly important role played by our team to achieving this result. Loyal to the IHG philosophy to deliver True Hospitality for everyone, we make our best every day to make each guest feel welcome and valued whether coming for leisure, business or conference" said Franck Hesse, IHG Switzerland Marketing and Sales Director.

The awards were presented at the red-carpet Gala Ceremony on 8th June 2019 in Madeira.

InterContinental Genève is also proud of the "Switzerland's Leading Business" and "Switzerland's Leading Conference" hotel recognitions. The hotel offers an ideal location; an unrivalled service; state of the art rooms and 16 multifunctional conference spaces, featuring natural daylight, spread across a total area of 2,000 m²

Behind grandiose doors inspired by the Palace of Versailles, famed interior architect Tony Chi expressed himself at his best for the enchantment of the guest in our suite called The Residence, awarded for the second year in a row Switzerland's Leading Suite.

Perched on the 18th floor of our establishment, The Residence is poised to be the epitome of excellence and the perfect place to appreciate a 360° breathtaking view on Geneva Lake, the Mont Blanc and the city.
