HOTELS & RESTAURANTS

Scott Gingerich
Senior Vice President, Restaurants & Bars
Kimpton Hotels & Restaurants

Scott Gingerich is Senior Vice President of Restaurants & Bars at Kimpton Hotels & Restaurants. Kimpton, a subsidiary of InterContinental Hotels Group, manages 80+ uniquely branded restaurant and bar concepts within the continental United States and internationally, generating annual revenues of $250+ million.

Prior to joining Kimpton in January 2015, Scott held senior leadership positions with some of the industry's most renowned and profitable restaurant groups, including Hakkasan Group, Tao Group, and China Grill Management. Scott has always found inspiration in the restaurant industry from both the interaction with guests along with the abundance and diversity of challenges.

Scott also served as Project Director and Consultant for Global Food Service Solutions, concentrating on food and beverage operations for high profile international events, including the Masters Golf Tournament in Augusta, Georgia, the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio, and the Expo Milano 2015.

Scott later founded Epicurean Restaurant + Bar Consulting, sharing his wealth of knowledge and experience with clients including Kimpton. After a yearlong relationship with Kimpton that included concept development projects for new properties, Scott was hired as Regional Vice President, Restaurants & Bars, before expanding his role to Senior Vice President, Restaurants & Bars. In this new role, Scott oversees the entire portfolio's restaurant and bar operations as well as the group's infrastructure and expansion strategy for all new openings and re-concepts.

Scott received his MBA from Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration, where he completed a Master of Management in Hospitality. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from the University of Virginia.

He resides in Santa Rosa, California, with his wife and their three children.
