GREENBELT

HISTORY, POLITICS & THE RISE TO BECOMING A GARDEN CITY

GREENBELT STORY

Greenbelt was founded in the New Deal era of President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1937. Located in Prince George's County, Maryland, the town was sculpted after European "garden cities." It was one of the three towns planned under the United States Resettlement Administration (the other two are Greenhill, Ohio and Greendale, Wisconsin). The town was designed to provide employment as well as affordable housing for low income workers. It was also aimed to offer a model for future planning of the towns in America. Over time, the town has developed into three distinctive socio economically and culturally diverse regions the West Greenbelt, East Greenbelt, and Old Greenbelt.
