REQUIREMENTS

Select Your Wedding Date

To ensure every couple's day is truly special, the resort hosts only one wedding per day. We recommend securing your preferred date well in advance.

Marriage License Requirements

A special marriage license is granted under certain circumstances, such as for foreign visitors in Fiji for a short time. A Marriage License form will be sent to the bride and groom for completion and signing and must be sent back to the wedding planner to apply for the marriage license.

Fijian wedding is legally binding and is recognised by both residents and visitors of Fiji.

Required Documents for Marriage License Application:

- Birth Certificates of the couple.
- Passports of the couple.
- Recent Passport-Sized Photos of both parties.
- Divorce Papers (if applicable for either party).
- Death Certificate (if applicable for either party's deceased spouse).
- Two Witnesses with valid photo identification.
- Application Letter for the special license.
- Certificate of Single Status / Certificate of Search (or Certificate of No Legal Impediment) is required from the following marriage applicants:
  - i. Couples where one party is a local and the other is a foreigner.
  - ii. Former citizens of Fiji who have attained citizenship abroad for two years or more.
  - iii. Foreign applicants.

Note: The Certificate of Search should cover the period from 18 years of age (the legal age to marry) to your current age. It must be dated within 3 months prior to your arrival. If you have recently relocated from another country, you will need to obtain two certificates: one from your current country and another from your last country of residence or your country of birth.

Your Wedding Planner will be happy to guide you with these requirements.

SUPPLIERS

If you choose to engage external suppliers for theming, entertainment, cake, or hair and make-up services, please provide us with their full contact details. This allows us to coordinate and secure the necessary passes with our Security team in advance of their arrival at the resort.
