

Capitol Theater

Located just 260m from the hotel, the Capitol Theatre Düsseldorf has stood for high-quality live entertainment, well-known productions and varied entertainment for over 20 years. As a former tram depot, the city's largest theatre impresses with its industrial design: brick walls, large windows in the foyers and dark bars convey a timeless, elegant loft character.

Click HERE.

Architecture in Düsseldorf

Düsseldorf boasts many architectural highlights, most of which can be seen in the Medienhafen, a must for architecture lovers. Not to miss are also the organic Frank O. Gehry Building ensemble, a spectacular landmark on the Düsseldorf skyline, but also the sleek Sign skyscraper of Helmut Jahn and the Stadttor, all realised in glass, steel and beech wood. Renowned architect Renzo Piano has designed the new Float Building in Holzstrasse. Click HERE.

Shopping Heaven

For a proper shopping getaway, head to the Königsallee, affectionately called "KÖ": a shopping paradise, combining sumptuous luxury and the Rhenish joie de vivre! Find a stunning souvenir browsing through the market in Carlsplatz and discover the new hipster trends in Lorettostrasse, in the Unterbilk district.

Click HERE.

