

PICK UP THE TRAIL OF YOUR FAVOURITE TV SHOWS!

Poldark fans will be delighted to discover that there are numerous film locations between Bodmin and West Penwith. Bodmin Jail, Holywell Bay and Charlestown Harbour are all very close by from the Holiday Inn Express Bodmin – Victoria Junction. For the diehard fans, make sure to ask us for directions to some of the more hidden locations, which are well worth a visit.

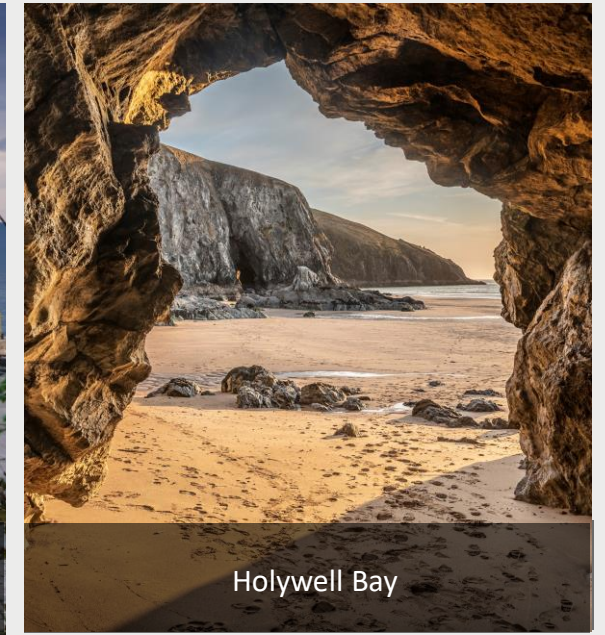

Holywell Bay, the peaceful beach that oversees amazing views, such as the famous Gulls Rocks, is also used as the epic backdrop for House Of The Dragon. Another Cornish filming location for the prequel of Game Of Thrones, is the iconic island of St Michael's Mount, crowned by a medieval church and castle.

The books of Rosamunde Pilcher, one of Cornwall's most prolific writers, have inspired countless films, many of which are filmed around the region's peninsula. The historic market town of Bodmin and the stunning panoramic views of the Bedruthan Steps are just a handful of the beautiful locations that will be instantly recognisable by fans.
