ENQUIRE NOW

Welcome to the Hotel Indigo Melbourne on Flinders, where you can make yourself at home in one of our 216 rooms overlooking Flinders and Spencer streets.

Hotel Indigo Melbourne has been designed to blend seamlessly into creative surrounds, with a vogueish interior inspired by photographic icon, Helmut Newton, who started his career in the area.

Step into the cosy charm of Bistrot Bisou, where casual French cuisine gets a Melbourne twist in the heart of the city. Designed by acclaimed chef Luke Mangan and nestled at the New York end of Flinders Lane, Bisou invites you to experience the latest gem in Melbourne's CBD dining scene. With a welcoming team, heartfelt hospitality, and a seat for everyone, Bistrot Bisou is your escape – a slice of France infused with Melbourne's spirit. Whether it's for a casual lunch, a romantic dinner, or a lively night out, Bisou is ready to welcome you.

Stay fit in our 50 sqm gym, equipped with state-of-the-art cardio machines, or hold meetings in our large and sophisticated meeting room opening in 2024.

Business travellers will appreciate the ergonomic workspace available in every room, as well as an in-room safe, flat-screen TV and Chromecast. We keep things eco-friendly with our Biology bathroom amenities and cosy Seed & Sprout robes and slippers - part of our IHG® Green Engage standard.

Experience Melbourne like a local by speaking to our knowledgeable staff, who are on hand to guide you through the history and stories of our neighbourhood. In addition to Melbourne's eclectic food offerings and artisanal coffee, you can enjoy sporting events and vibrant nightlife all on your doorstep.

Light-filled, design-led rooms

Floor-to-ceiling windows and artwork inspired by Newton's work are features of our premium rooms. In addition to their larger size, these rooms have modern technology and luxurious amenities such as Smart TV, minibar, USB ports, complimentary WiFi and much more. Red couches and backstage curtains create a studio-like space.

The neighbourhood

Flinders Lane is the historic lynchpin of Melbourne, and over the years, philanthropists, playboys, creatives, and crooks have all spent time forging careers there. This area is steeped in intrigue and, for the modern traveler, a place you'll find hidden bars behind walls, secret haunts, and fashion stores in unusual places. All of this and more await you at our hotel's doorstep.

The three takeaways

Come and stay with us, and you'll leave with "the desire to discover, the desire to move, and the desire to capture the flavour" — three notions that according to Helmut Newton — describe the art of photography.

Classic French Fare, Great Drinks, And Melbourne vibes
