TOKYO SHIBUYA

The beating heart of the city

Kaleidoscopically colourful, dizzyingly busy, and endlessly exciting — Shibuya is Tokyo's most vibrant destination. And at the centre of it all stands Hotel Indigo Tokyo Shibuya, a peaceful sanctuary above the frenzy where you can slow down and discover Shibuya from a higher plane. Encounter entrancing music, arresting art, distinctive fashion, and bold design, all inspired by our neighbourhood.

The city always captures the latest trends, and its changing appearance from area to area is one of Shibuya's attractive points. The music culture in the Udagawa area, the Shibuya Center Gai that celebrates any individuality, Nonbei Yokocho that retains the atmosphere of the black market, the art museum in Shoto whose historical architecture is a must-see, and Konnoh Hachimangu Shrine where one can feel the history of the area. Artful and energetic, Shibuya is a town where various cultures coexist and where you will find inspiration that will make you want to venture out again and again.

Located on the 13th to 28th floors, the 272 guest rooms are a perfect place to immerse yourself in music culture. Each room has a different record jacket on the wall, and if you request a player, you can experience records in your room while enjoying the spectacular view of the city. Some rooms offer views of the Shibuya scramble crossing, Tokyo Skytree, and on clear days, even the famous Mount Fuji. Hotel Indigo Tokyo Shibuya offers approachable, high quality service that makes your experience in the world-famous city of Shibuya far more than you could ever imagine.

A TREASURY OF ART

The hotel's original illustrations tell the story of Shibuya's neighbourhood and its history.

Shibuya is also famous as a music town, with numerous live music clubs and record stores. The more than 2,100 records in the hotel are carefully selected one by one. You can request a player to experience the records in your room, and feel the story behind each piece of music in your own way.

You can also enjoy a meal while listening to a DJ performance at the all-day dining "Gallery 11," and experience Shibuya's music culture throughout the hotel.
