Meetings

The hotel's meetings and events space offers a signature attraction, attendees can enjoy breathtaking views of the convergence of the Yangtze and Daning Rivers. The interior design is inspired by the historical, cultural and natural scenery of Wushan, incorporating elements such as ancient Chinese bamboo slips, pottery and stone tools. The ceiling is shaped like the spires of ancient local buildings. Beyond offering spaces to suit any gathering, our meetings and events team provides seamless service from start to finish along with the know-how to make every business conference, company function and celebratory event a success.
