Why Fujairah

Being the only Emirate on the pearly coast of the Indian Ocean yields unique advantages to Fujairah's destination experience.

The most beautiful Emirate in the UAE with cultural forts, museums, wadis, mountains, waterfalls and 400+ species of flora and fauna.

The 90-minute drive to Fujairah in and of itself, brings treasures from the onset. As you leave Dubai's skyline behind, you can't help but witness the topographic transition from flat lands to sandy dunes and soaring mountains. Find delight in espying Bedouin shepherds watchfully herding their prized camels and goats across winding hills.

Beautifully breezy, clean climate, blue skies, a sparkling ocean and whistling palm trees. When you sense the temperature drop a tad, you know you've arrived at the 'the pearl of the Emirates' – Fujairah.

The Perfect Destination

Calm yet vibrant, Fujairah is one of the most attractive cities to visit in the UAE and is 4 hours ahead of the GMT. A scenic destination like no other, the weather here ranges from 39°C to 20°C. This sunny weather with a light breeze throughout the year calls for some light Summer clothing and some warm Winter clothing to keep you comfortable outside of the wedding celebrations. Make sure to convert your money to the local currency, the United Arab Emirates Dirham (AED) and pack the essential gear for the adventures of your choice, be it hiking or watersports.

Wedding Rituals

As part of our dedication to creating highly individual wedding experiences, our InterContinental wedding professionals have access to a global pool of local knowledge on wedding rituals from around the world.

You might have heard of “Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed, Something Blue”, or the Japanese tradition of “Kagami-Biraki” (opening the wooden barrel of Sacred Sake), which is a toast to the couple’s health and happiness. Whether you choose an international ritual or create your own, you can be sure that any sentiment you feel strongly about can be made into a beautiful and poetic ritual as part of your celebration.

Our wedding professionals will be happy to introduce you to more rituals, a few of which are explained opposite.

Jai Mala

Origin: India

An integral part of the Indian wedding ceremony, this is the part where the bride and groom exchange floral garlands. This expresses the desire of the couple to marry each other. This is the Indian equivalent of the ring ceremony, common to the West.

Henna

Origin: United Arab Emirates

This is the religious ceremony before the actual wedding celebration; it’s where henna is applied onto the bride’s and bridal party’s hands and a religious figure officially marries the couple. After this is when the party begins.

Radwa

Origin: Saudi Arabia

This event usually occurs one or two days before the wedding day. It is a small gathering of close male relatives on both sides of the bride and groom. In this exchange, the men on the groom’s side make sure that the bride’s family is satisfied with the party.
