OUR HOME

THE FIJI ISLANDS

The idyllic islands of Fiji, with their palm-lined white sandy beaches and sheltered lagoons amid the deep-blue waters of the South Pacific, provide the perfect backdrop for an unforgettable corporate event.

InterContinental Fiji Golf Resort & Spa is located on Fiji's main island of Viti Levu, a trans-Pacific aviation hub with year-round connectivity between Australia, New Zealand, North America, Asia and other Pacific islands.

It's believed Viti Levu was first settled more than 3,500 years ago by the chief Lutunasobasoba and his followers. Indigenous Fijians are descendants of these adventurers, sharing this chain of beautiful islands with a melting pot of Indian, Polynesian, Chinese and European cultures. Host your event at InterContinental Fiji Golf Resort & Spa and you can tap into a wealth of authentic, enriching cultural experiences. Introduce your delegates to fresh perspectives as they delve into the intricacies of Fiji's languages, cuisine, belief systems, architecture, arts and crafts, music and dance.

There's a wide range of activities for your event attendees to enjoy, both within the resort and its surrounds. Channel the competitive spirit of your delegates into a round of golf at Natadola Bay Championship Golf Course. Let traditional Fijian healers pamper them in our serene spa. Or venture beyond the resort to engage with nearby communities – welcoming locals will reward your delegates with warm smiles and friendly faces, making them feel right at home.
