THE ORIGINS OF WHISKY

The earliest whisky distilleries date back to the late 1400s in Scotland. Scotch whisky, which can only be called scotch if it was made in Scotland, was first made in monasteries and used for medicinal purposes.

There are multiple ingredients used in the production of whisky. Some of the most common are fermented grain mash or fermented mash, malted barley, rye grain or cereal grains. Then comes the distillation, every distillery has a unique process but almost age their whiskey in wood barrels. The aging process can be anywhere from 2-3 years up to 12 years for a high-quality whiskey.

TYPES OF WHISKY

Whisky lovers around the world have their particular favourite when it comes to whisky. It's not surprising that there are multiple varieties of whisky, unique to certain regions.

Irish Whiskey

Irish whiskey dates back more than 400 years! Irish whiskey is typically triple distilled from unmalted barley, though some distilleries produce malt whiskey. The flavour profile of Irish whiskey is light and slightly sweet.

Scotch Whisky

Typically known as Scotch is grain whisky or malt whisky. Although larger commercial distilleries started producing rye whisky towards the end of the 18th century.

The Scottish are known as some of the most prominent whisky connoisseurs. Single grain scotch whisky is made from cereal grains as opposed to only malted barley.

The flavour profiles include oak, malt and smoke.

Japanese Whisky

Native to Japan, the local whisky industry produced some fine blended style whiskies in the 1870s. Blended whiskies from Japan are modelled similarly to scotch whiskies, by distilling malted barley which is then placed in wooden barrels.

American Whiskey

Bourbon is the whiskey produced by American distillers. Bourbon is made primarily a corn whiskey. American blends are different to other whiskeys because bourbon is a grain whisky. Bourbon is distinctly sweet when compared to other whiskies. Rye whiskey is another favourite that is similar in style to bourbon but must be distilled from rye grain.

GIN

---

- Monkey 47 75
Monkey 47 Dry Gin is distilled in-house in the Schwarzwald (Black Forest) region of Germany. The '47' in the name comes from both the 47 botanicals used and the 47% ABV.
- Tobermory Gin 45
It features local botanicals including elderflower, tea and wild heather, and a dash of Tobermory new-make spirit, which is used more as another botanical rather than the full base.
- Mistral Gin 50
Thanks to the founders of the first Provençal Gin Rosé which was crafted based on the knowledge of the terroirs of Provence and their know-how in rosé wines, we can now enjoy this recipe with a color so unique.
- Gin Mare 45
Gin Mare opens the door to a new variety of gins, with a novel Pan-Mediterranean concept that unites the different cultures around this sea representing their botanical stars such as: Arbequina olives, thyme, basil and rosemary.
- Four Pillars Spiced Negroni Gin 50
Four Pillars Spiced Negroni Gin is the original gin created specifically to go in a Negroni cocktail. It is a highly aromatic, rich and (yes) spicy gin with great power and intensity.
- Sip Smith London Dry Gin 60
SipSmith is one of the few London Dry Gins that are actually made in London. It has been produced in the Hammersmith district of London since 2009.
- The Botanist 65
An artisanal Islay gin made by Bruichladdich Distillery. It is one of two gins made on Islay, and is distinctive for its 22 hand-foraged Islay botanicals that are added to nine core gin aromatics.
- Bulldog Gin 60
It is difficult to trace where the name itself came from, there have been claims that because the year it was released, 2006, was the Chinese Year of the Dog. The website reads that it was a reference to Winston Churchill. Who knows?

Plymouth Gin	60
For almost 200 years, Her Majesty's Naval Fleet and Plymouth Navy Strength were inseparable, with no ship leaving port without a bottle on board. Plymouth Gin is a Protected Geographical Indication that pertains to any gin distilled in Plymouth, England
Tanqueray	30
The palate begins with juniper, but finishes with rich hints of baking spice including angelica root, cinnamon and coriander seed.
The Bitter Truth Pink Gin	60
The tradition of blending gin and bitters was first established by members of the Royal Navy to cure seasickness. The Bitter Truth Pink Gin is a delicious blend of traditionally crafted gin and a blend of bitters.
Bombay Sapphire	35
Bombay Sapphire's story begins with Thomas Dakin in 1761. At the age of 24 Dakin purchased a site with potential for distilling on Bridge Street in Warrington, and in doing so, made it the ideal location to an empire.
Hayman's Old Tom	35
Hints of playful pine immediately greet you on the nose. Muscular lemon oil builds out most of the aroma, with a dash of licorice root for good measure.
Hendrick's	45
Yang and Scottish! Hendricks was launched in 1999 and after 4 years The Wall Street Journal described Hendricks's as the "Best Gin in the World" in 2003.

WORLDLY CLASSICS

---

Martini	50
A legacy cocktail with an air of refined panache, it should be stirred, never shaken, to retain its clarity and composure. After all, it is suave and debonair, crisp and dry.
Negroni	50
This iconic appetitive is the very definition of balance and simplicity. It's sweet yet bitter and most certainly timeless, and still served today the way Mr. Negroni intended.
Daiquiri	50
A sweet and sour delight steeped in history, it's been quenching thirsts and serving as an inspiration to authors for more than 100 years.
Old Fashioned	50
Emanating from the 19th century, it formed the basis from which all other cocktails were born. This classic drink is confident and mastered here the old fashioned way.
Margarita	50
Esquire Magazine first described her to the world as 'lovely to look at' in 1953. The Margarita is the perfect combination of sweet, salty, sour and bitter.
Caipirinha	50
Made from a raw sugarcane spirit that once sparked a revolution. Traditionally flavored with muddled limes, it's potent, light and refreshing.

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

- Not So Old Fashioned 50
A daring twist on a classic—bourbon meets port and Campari, enriched with sweet vermouth, aromatic bitters, and a touch of truffle butter. Finished with dill leaves for a bold, savoury kick.
- Kafir Sour 45
Zesty, silky, and refreshingly exotic. Gin, lemon, and kafir leaves come alive under a soft egg white foam, with bitter drops and a citrus kick that lingers.
- Thyme Traveller 45
A fragrant journey through citrus groves and herb gardens—vodka infused with fresh thyme, kissed by lavender nectar, lemon, and a hint of sweetness. Topped with tonic for a crisp, aromatic finish and garnished with thyme for a final touch of wanderlust.
- Spice O Rita 55
This is not your average margarita. It is a bold blend of tequila, zesty lemon, sweet agave, fresh coriander, and a fiery kick of Holland chili—topped with soda and crowned with togarashi and a dry chili for that knockout finish.
- Last Tango 55
A seductive blend of dark port, bitters, and deep cocoa, kissed with a splash of amaretto. Smooth, complex, and finished with an elegant touch of bamboo leaves.
