| Frosé                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 50 |  |
| Frosé is simply frozen rosé wine with a fabulous fruity twist. And this easy Frosé recipe tastes like a frozen treat.                                                                                                 |    |  |
| Genevieve                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 50 |  |
| An elegant and sophisticated version of the classic margarita. Simple, high-quality ingredients such as Grand Marnier make this particular cocktail a winner.                                                         |    |  |
| ShaSha Royale                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 50 |  |
| Aside from being delicious, the best thing about our ShaSha Royale might be how easy it is. The scant half ounce of Chambord permeates the Prosecco, resulting in a gorgeous cocktail with a hint of berry sweetness. |    |  |
| Hugo                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 50 |  |
| A classic Italian Aperitivo, this Hugo cocktail recipe is flavoured with elderflower, mint, lime and Prosecco for the perfect summer cocktail.                                                                        |    |  |
| MOJITOS                                                                                                                                                                                                        |    |  |
