

KIMPTON
FITZROY
LONDON

TIMELESS LONDON GLAMOUR

A 19th-century beauty meets the London of today: that's what you'll find at Kimpton Fitzroy London.

From the outside, the landmark building, which occupies a full block along the eastern side of Russell Square in Bloomsbury, looks every bit the grande dame. Inside though, contemporary interiors feature striking details that link to its past, ensuring luxury with a relaxed atmosphere beckoning the discerning traveller to settle in, and stay a while.

The 334 bedrooms and suites are all unique, modern and playful with a wink to the hotel's architect, Charles Fitzroy Doll, and his original designs.

And with three restaurant and bars, Kimpton Fitzroy London has something to please everyone. Fitz's Russell Sq. is the beating heart of the building, offering flamboyant cocktails at Fitz's Bar & Parlour, and classic dishes at Fitz's Brasserie; while coffee house Burr & Co. is the ideal spot for specialty coffees and a quick bite before exploring London.
