Unfortunately, there are no options for the hotel to be used as a 'dry-hire venue'. Food and beverage requirements must be included with all enquiries. Equipment can be provided from within the hotel at a cost, however, should a customer wish to bring outside equipment into the hotel it is at the discretion of the management, and evidence must be provided to ensure that it has been tested and is safe to use. The Best Western Clifton Hotel will accept no liability for outside equipment brought into the hotel and would insist that compliance with the rules as set out in the Health and Safety at Work Act, 1974, is complied with. For any third-party contractors visiting the hotel (such as Bands, and Entertainers) under your instruction you must ensure current and adequate Public Liability Insurance is in place. Copies of electrical testing certificates and insurance policies must be made available to the hotel management on request. It is the customer's responsibility to ensure that any outside supplier fully complies with all regulations.

The hotel reserves the right to charge in full the person booking the wedding for any damage caused to the hotel or its property during any event by any third party or guest involved with the wedding. Wedding Guests are to be advised by the person booking the wedding that children are always the responsibility of their parents, and the hotel takes no responsibility for any accidents, or incidents that may occur.

All Food and Beverage is to be purchased from the Hotel and it is the responsibility of the person signing this contract to ensure that guests at their function do not bring their own food and beverage items to the function, unless agreed with the hotel beforehand. Any such items found will be removed and will be charged for at the existing Hotel prices.

Please be advised that for all functions and reservations, the hotel does have a cancellation policy. Guest numbers can of course be changed, however if the number goes down significantly, the cancellation charges may be applied at the discretion of the hotel management. The hotel also reserves the right, if guest numbers are significantly reduced, to re-allocate the designated function room, to one or more relevant to the size of the event. All non-arrivals on the day of any event will be charged for in full. The cancellation policy is applied as follows:

- If cancelled 12 weeks prior to the function – 25% of the total booking value is to be paid by the customer
- If cancelled 4-12 weeks prior to the function – 50% of the total booking value is to be paid by the customer
- If cancelled less than 4 weeks prior to the function – 100 % of the total booking value is to be paid by the customer
