Choose the Crowne Plaza Amsterdam City Centre where the Traditional Townhouse Gets a Modern Twist, 300 Metres from Central Station

The dedicated staff at the Crowne Plaza Amsterdam City Centre believe in personalized service. Receive a warm welcome in the bright, modern lobby, then order drinks and relax by the fireplace in our spacious Lobby Connect Lounge. Celebrate your stay in our New Dorrius Restaurant, where Internationalites with a Dutch twist enrich a lively menu.

Crowne Plaza Amsterdam City Centre is a five minute walk from Central Station with direct trains to Amsterdam Schiphol Airport, 18km away. The station is served by three metro lines, while five tram routes stop outside the hotel. Leave your car with our valet and ask our concierge about the city's best canal side cafes, bike rental and routes.

Invite up to 270 delegates for events in one of our 12 meeting rooms, or dine privately in the exquisite, wood-paneled Queen of Holland room. Create ideas and visions in our Ideation room and enjoy a Nespresso in the breakout area. Our Business Centre offers high-speed Internet and printing.

Crowne Plaza Amsterdam City Centre modern hotel incorporates two 17th-century townhouses, where several club rooms and suites boast original wooden beams. For a refreshing break, energize in the hotel's fully-equipped Fitness Centre with sauna.

Listen to the latest songs, only on JioSaavn. Listen to the latest songs, only on JioSaavn. Manchester City were crowned Premier League champions for the third time in four seasons after Manchester United crashed to a 2-1 defeat against Leicester on Tuesday. Pep Guardiola's side are 10 points clear of second placed United and have wrapped up the title with three games to spare. In the midst of a gruelling run of three games in five days, United manager Ole Gunnar Solskjaer effectively handed the title to arch rivals City by picking a weakened team with 10 changes.
